DAFFY DUCK THROWS HIS BEAK INTO THE RING

Little Black Duck, Known to Millions, Will Compete for the USA's Highest Office

"I promise a 'rabbit' in every pot!"

New York, New York---Speaking from the front steps of his campaign headquarters at Animazing Gallery in New York's SoHo district, Mr. Duck declared today his candidacy for the office of President of the United States of America. Citing the appalling lack of laws that govern the movement and lives of rabbits Mr. Duck stated that, if elected, he will introduce legislation that will declare 'Rabbit Season' open 12 months a year.

Born in 1937 in Hollywood, California, Daffy Duck like many a politician before him first gained notoriety as an actor. His premier in the Warner Bros. Cartoon Porky's Duck Hunt, Daffy Duck has an amazing range of acting style and ability due to his unique relationship with many of the Warner Bros. directors. From the all-out zaniness of Bob Clampett and Tex Avery to the shifty-eyed scheming of Chuck Jones. In a delightful slew of other cartoons from the likes of Friz Freleng and Bob McKimson, Daffy Duck has demonstrated his consistent ability to remain at the peak of his performing powers throughout his 67 years in the spotlight. He does not feel that his age will negatively impact his performance as President should he be elected (he is, after all, freshly drawn each morning.)

Daffy Duck for President, a new limited edition giclée on paper by Chuck Jones, is having its inaugural release at Animazing Gallery (461 Broome Street, Soho, NY). Coinciding with the Republican National Convention, Daffy Duck for President, a new limited edition giclée on paper by Chuck Jones, is having its inaugural release at Animazing Gallery (461 Broome Street, Soho, NY). With the edition size of Daffy Duck for President limited to just 100 examples, Animazing gallery owner, Heidi Leigh says "there's no time like the present to swear your allegiance to the Duck!" Campaign buttons are being distributed to the faithful at the gallery as well.

Chuck Jones' career at Warner Bros. Animation spans the entire history of the studio and most of the history of animation itself. His work has been celebrated by the movie industry, exhibited in galleries and museums, and inducted in the National Film Registry. Daffy Duck for President is a project that had been close to Chuck's heart, a wry affirmation of the democratic process.

Animazing Gallery, in the heart of New York's SoHo district at 461 Broome Street, has been serving the animation art and fine art community for over 15 years.
